

ONLINE MAY SESSION 2020 COURSE

LLAS/SOCI 3525: Latino Sociology

Want to fulfill a CA2 & CA4 requirement in just 3 weeks? Want to do so while learning about Latinx people? Latinx people are the largest minority group in the United States, projected to reach 132.8 million in 2050. The demographic significance of Latinx people has led politicians, policy-makers, and academics to debate the future of this population. The purpose of this course is to help you think critically about the role that Latinx people play in U.S. society and their diverse experiences.
